NEW YORK, July 25.-The stock market was irregular again today. Some of yesterday's losses were recovered, and several slight gains made, but a majority of the stocks closed at declines from yesterday's final figures. London advices reported a weaker market for Americans and the foreign continent was on this market as sellers. At the opening polices were generally well held, the Leather preferred, which showed a gain, but dropped immediately.

The segar clique forced prices of that stock down 1% per cent. Small recessions were made in the general list, but the grangers came in good demand on weren and Boston orders and rose & 20-75 per cent., the latter in Bock Island. In the last liour thore was a general reaction. The general market was irregular at the close. Achism preferred when issued sold at 21621%, closing at 21%.

Founds were animated but somewhat erratic. In the late dealings the advancing tendency was quite premounced, in some of the spaceulative issues. The sales were $2,797,000.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Arrowsmith Expires of Hemmorrhage of the Laugs.

PAYSON, July 55.—Castilla was crowded with people yesterday and some accidents besides one death occurred among our people while occurred among our people while there. Mrs. Polly Arrowsmith, aged about 20, was taken suddenly sick in the bath, and died about 7 o'clock with hemmorrhage of the lungs—the evening train brought her home a corpse, which cast a gloom over the city today. Her little daughter was with her and was grieved to distraction, inconsolable. Mr. Arrowsmith, the husband, is away on a mission to England; it will be a said blow to him.

Miss Mary Loveless fell from a swing and fractured her leg and badly bruised her arm and side. William Pickering, jr., suffered scalp wounds in a scrap, which took two or three stitches to make him whole again.
